

Proud moments:

Acorn

Acorn have had a great first week back. The children all settled brilliantly back into the routine and got stuck into all the fun activities we have done for our Sikhism culture week.

Shout outs to:

Reggie for great play in the ball pool.

Akayla for tapping her knee's along to the bucket song in Attention Autism.

Maggie for beautiful playing skills, kicking and throwing a ball to and from an adult.

George for his cheeky smile and fantastic enthusiasm for being back in school.

Dauids for engaging well with the visual timetable, pointing to what is coming next.

Otis for walking over to an adult to show that he wanted to smell the spices in Senseology.

Carson for trying the potato puffs at dinner time.

Eli for approaching adults throughout the week and taking them to what he wanted.

Samuel for being a kind friend, working well with his friends.

Shey for lovely engagement in Senseology, identifying symbols of different sense organs.

Kohan for excellent communication, telling an adult that he wanted a drink.
