Hazel

We have had a fantastic end to the term in Hazel Class. We have been thinking about what we have achieved over this term and how proud we are of all our pupil. Special mentions for the following achievements this term:

Thomas - you have worked really hard on becoming more independent at snack time and we are incredibly proud with your willingness to try new things at Lea Green.
Jake - we are so impressed with how well you have settled in with your new class and have managed lots of changes over the term. Way to go Jake. 😊
Nathan - you are growing into such an independent young man. Keep it up Nath!
A - you communication is coming on leaps and bounds and we have loved seeing your cheeky side this term. Even if it did mean we had to mop the classroom floor - twice! 😄
Sharissa - we love to see you focusing really carefully, particularly during our sessions like Attention Autism. Your smile lights up the room!
Jessica - you re growing into such an independent young lady and we love your confidence in showing and telling us what you want to do. Great work Jess!
