

Proud moments:

Acorn

Acorns have been very busy this week. We made our own paper plate animals in art, enjoyed a sensory literacy session based on the song 'The Farmer Plants a Seed' and had an action-packed trip to Lea Green on Friday. Shout-outs for:

Reggie for great concentration during 1:1 work, posting shapes with an adult.

Akayla for fabulous joining in with songs on the board, trying to sign with adult modelling.

Maggie for amazing sitting in the cafe for community.

George for beautiful work on his cognition and learning ILP target.

Dauids for good work on his Communication and Interaction ILP, following simple 1-step instructions.

Shey for doing some great collaging to make a beautiful flower picture in literacy.

Eli for being caring, going to check on his friend when they were upset.

Samuel for great independence putting on his own shoes.

Otis for fantastic exploring of all the stick themed activities in Forest School.

Carson for initiating play with an adult, getting them to chase him.

Kohan for brilliant matching key pictures in our literacy session.

Amazing work little Acorns!

Apple

Haydn for using his communication book independently to make requests and engage in a two-way conversation with adults, including making comments.

Joshua for excellent work in Literacy with mark making and participating by using the props in our weekly sensory story.
