

Proud moments:

Acorn

Acorn have had an amazing end to the half-term. We loved our final Forest School session, sat beautifully for our breakfast at the cafe and enjoyed beach themed activities for the final day. Shout outs for:

Reggie for remembering where he sits at lunchtime, taking himself to his own chair independently

Akayla for copying actions with an instrument in music

Maggie for an amazing art session, communicating well with an adult to tell us what she wanted to make marks with and what colour paint she wanted

George for asking to do some work with an adult in the 1:1 room, completing the task then telling an adult he was 'finished'- super work George!

Dauids for coming up to the counter and doing great choosing when out at the cafe

Eli for lovely engagement with our farm themed sensory tray in literacy, exploring different textures like dry cereal, dried herbs and fresh herbs

Samuel for great work on his cognition and learning ILP, doing some 1:1 focused work with an adult

Otis for choosing that he wanted raisins using a communication board with adult prompting

Carson for working hard on his physical and sensory ILP target, taking a spoon of his food to his mouth with adult support

Kohan for his brilliant cheeky sense of humour, squirting all the adults with water in our water-play Forest School session

What a fantastic half-term, have a lovely break little Acorns!
