

Proud moments:

Acorn

Acorns have had a great week in the sunshine. We enjoyed a sensory jungle themed literacy session, had a blast on the tough mudder course and worked hard on our new topic of 'heavy and light' in Maths.

Shout-outs for:

Reggie for being persistent, working hard to step over the hurdles independently in PE.

Akayla for engaging beautifully with the sensory trays in Literacy, especially sprinkling the rice.

Maggie for waiting patiently during Attention Autism.

George for having lots of fun and getting stuck into the tough runner course.

Shey and Davids for working hard to crawl through the tunnels on the tough runner course.

Eli for having a great time on the tough mudder course.

Samuel for settling beautifully back into school.

Otis for lovely interaction with a peer, hugging them and making eye contact.

Carson for being brave on the tough runner course, giving everything a go.

Kohan for his bravery, swimming to the deep end of the pool with his arm bands on all by himself. He had a massive grin on his face.

Well done busy little Acorns!

Apple
