

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Friday 28th June 2024

Proud moments:

Acorn

We've had a beautiful week in the sunshine Acorn class! Shout-outs to:

Reggie for beautiful participation in our Parkfest, having a boogie to the different performances.

Avis for super exploration of pictures of her peers before finding her own photo.

Carson for increasing independence at dinner times, taking himself up to empty his plate and choose his pudding.

Violet for great interactions with the adults in the sensory room, seeking out eye contact and cuddles.

Eddie for fantastic concentration in Maths, persisting with the long and short activity until he had completed it.

George for amazing waiting for an activity and requesting a turn with lovely manners saying 'please'.

William for brilliant communication symbol, showing us the toilet symbol when he was finished with water play and wanted to get changed.

Bradley for walking beautifully on our nature walk.

Tommy for lovely communication, telling an adult all about the different characters in the Minecraft book using descriptive language.

Well done Acorn class 😊
