

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Friday 28th March 2025

Proud moments:

Acorn

What a brilliant, busy week we have had in Acorn class. Shout-outs to:

Reggie for having lots of fun on the slide and trampoline outside, doing great turn taking with his peers

Bradley for a super swimming session, doing brilliant 1:1 work

Lexi for great work in art, mixing the different powder paints together, dipping it in cotton wool, then dropping it from a height to make a splat

P for fantastic work in phonics, attending to different sounds and finding the right toy to match the sound

Harry for super listening, being independent with tidying during transitions

William for brilliant engagement in art, dipping the cotton wool in the powder paint and making marks with it

Niamh for super singing, going 'e i o' to Old MacDonald

Violet for fantastic rolling of the ball in PE

Carson for being brave at horse riding, trying on the helmet

Avis for having a great time in music, practising her keyboard skills

Super work Acorn class!
