

Proud moments:

Maple

Violet - showed interest in playing the ukelele and engaged beautifully with making different sounds.
Phoebe - amazing effort to form the letters in her name when writing on her Christmas card.
Bradley - engaged with our clap hands and wiggle fingers rhyme pattern in Maths.
Mason - identified his feelings independently when shown our feelings chart.
Calvin - loved being on stage during our Christmas Concert and showed his love for everyone's music throughout the performances!
J - lovely engagement during story time, giggling away to The Three Little Pigs story.
Oliver - built lovely relationships with staff in class and has been so happy to see Jas this week.
Sammy - being brave during the Christmas concert to sit with peers.
Ashton - enjoyed joining in with Christmas baking activities, coming back for more.
A - listening to adult instructions well and following them.

Willow

AM - for great communication over his sensory needs

Harry - Following simple instructions
Zion - exploring the community
Jared - being a kind friend
EK - Some beautiful moments of intensive interaction with staff
ES - great intensive interactions this week, and for trying hard with transitions
TD- Great water confidence this week

Juniper

Juniper class have had a great week this week. We've taken this week to slow down as we approach the end of the autumn term, it's been a long one! This week we have focused on interaction between staff and pupils and it's been fantastic. Pupils have enjoyed a tacpac session, intensive interaction sessions and the Christmas disco along with lots of other Christmassy activities.
Charlie- for lovely interactions with staff during tacpac and interacting with a peer.
L- lovely watching you to check in with a peer to see if they were okay when upset and for great copying during Sherborne.
Nevaeh- for lovely smiles during Sherborne and amazing interaction during intensive interaction sessions.
Octavia- for great attention and focus during our attention autism session.
O- for great work in Sherborne, rolling on the peanut ball and following instructions.
Riley- for amazing work in your standing frame when the physio came in, you really showed them how hard you've been working.
Reece- for good listening and movement during our Sherborne session.
Skye- for brilliant eye contact and interaction with staff and pupils saying hello.
Thomas- for lovely interactions and coping during Sherborne.

Thank you all for a great autumn term and I wish you a merry Christmas and a happy new year, see you all in 2026 🥰

Sycamore

OG- For engaging well by dancing to morning songs with little encouragement and selecting happy emotion off the choosing board whilst smiling
